MARRIED MEN ARE FAVORED

Tax Exemption Put At $2,500 Instead of $2,000 By Committee.

PAT ON SURTAX LEVY

New Revenue Bill Draft Allows $400 for Each Dependent—No Increase On Tobacco and Cigarettes.

Washington Aug. 13.—The Republicans of the Ways and Means Committee today voted to grant heads of families, having $5,000 or less net income, an exemption of $2,500 from income taxes, instead of the present exemption of $2,000. This is in addition to the increase from $200 to $400 in the exemption allowed for each child. No change is made in the exemption for single persons.

It is estimated that $32,000,000 will be dropped in taxes by the increase in the exemption, which will be effective for the current calendar year.

The committee also voted today to put a flat tax of 15 per cent on income derived from property transfers. A flat and definite tax will relieve the uncertainty as to the amount that will be taken in taxes in cases where property has been held several years and negotiations for its sale are under way.

The fur tax was reduced from 10 per cent to 5, the manufacturers' tax on candy was cut from 5 per cent to 3 and the tax on art objects was cut from 10 per cent to 5. This latter tax does not apply to pieces of art bought by museums, and it is stated that at 10 per cent, it did not yield much in excess of $1,000,000.

Definite action was taken in voting to eliminate Section 904 of the present law, which is the so-called luxury tax, fixing a levy of 10 per cent. on the prices, above prescribed levels, of various articles of clothing, trunks, rugs, etc. The committee is attempting to work out a system of manufacturers' taxes on the same articles. Whether it will succeed was in serious doubt yesterday evening.

In the present so-called luxury taxes the purchaser pays the tax to the retailer, who passes it to the Government. The committee wants to tax the same articles, or nearly all of them, when they pass from the manufacturers hands. It is figuring on a manufacturers' tax of 3 per cent, which, it is estimated, would yield three or four times the approximate $20,000,000 produced by the present tax.

Decision was reached to place no higher tax on tobacco and cigarettes. Also, it was determined to go no further at this time in changing the surtaxes on individual incomes than to make the maxmum from January 1 last 32 per cent. Another decision reached was to let the capital stock tax on corporations stand.

At the conclusion of today's sessions Representative Longworth estimated that the net result of all the changes made is to reduce inter-

Killed Man for $8.50.

Steubenville, Ohio, Aug. 13.—Exhibiting not the slightest trace of regret, Walter Wright, 28, Wellsville, Ohio, coolv explained to jailers that he killed Harry Cummins, local automobile dealer, July 23, his sole motive being robbery.

Wright at first denied that he had robbed Cummins' body, but later is said to have admitted that he got $8.50 from Cummins' pockets.

The shooting occurred near this city after the two had stood talking beside their automobiles, Cummins being shot from behind. Wright will be held for the September grand jury.

Potomac Baptist Associatoin.

The 66th annual session of the Potomac Baptist Association will convene next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, August 17th, with the Oak Dale Baptist Church, Prince William County. Those expecting to attend the Association should leave the Union station at 7:37 a. m., they make take the 9:17 a. m., train for Haymarket, where it is possible conveyances may be secured for conveying delgates to the church The officers of the Association from this city are Mr. James R. Mansfield, Clerk, and Rev. E. B. Jackson, D. D., Historian. It is expected a large number of delegates from both the First and Second Alexandria Churches will attend the associational meeting. The Association will hold a two day session, and probably a third, but the principle meetings of the session will be on Thursday, August 18th, when a number of prominent members of the denominations are expected to be present and deliver addresses.

STATE NEWS

Lynchburg.—Another case of typhoid fever has been reported here and has been dismissed because of mistaken diagnosis. This leaves ten in the city now and a total of seventeen for the year.

Richmond.—James E. Dickerson, recent candidate for the legislature, spent $14.50 in the campaign, according to his expense account which he filed Tuesday. Of that amount, $10 represented the entrance fee.

Newport News.—Local police have been invited to help Camp Eustis authorities nab the thieves who stole a quantity of silver and linen in camp about August 1. The property was in the care of the quartermaster's corps, and had been stored in one of the warehouses.

Richmond.—The Civic Association of Richmond of which Branch Johnson is secretary, will ask the next legislature to amend the socalled Sunday blue laws in such manner that there can be no doubt as to interpretation, it has been announced by Mr. Johnson. Similar associations in all the cities and counties in the state will be asked to lend their influence to the movement, he said.

Harrisburg.—No Democratic aspirant for Supreme Court Judge of Pennsylvania filed a nominating petition in the period for entering judicial primary papers at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth which expired last midnight. There are but two candidates. They are Justice William I. Schaffer, of Chester, appointed by the Governor last year, Republican candidate, and Charles Palmer, Ridley Park, Prohibition condidate. This is the first time that there has been no Democratic candidate.

Danville.—Considerable speculation is being indulged in here with regard to the vacancy in the Fifth Congressional district through the death of Representative Rorer A. James. Friends of two local Democrats have started booms for them, they being Commonwealth's Attorney John W. Carter and Judge Edwin J. Harvey, who retired from the Circuit Court bench in 1918 and has since been practicing law here.

Hampton.—Hampton Institute has just closed the most successful summer school in all its history. Some 637 colored teachers came from 17 states. Virginia led the list with 187 and was closely followed by North Carolina with 166. South Carolina sent 57; Maryland, 55; Georgia, 34; Tennessee, 25; and Mississippi, 21.

"More than one-half of those who were refused admission on account of lack of room," said Dr. George P. Phenix, vice principal of Hampton Institute and director of the summer school, "were from states not contiguous to Virginia."

Fredericksburg.—J. J. Forrer and C. S. Mullen, of Richmond, engineers of the State Highway Department, were here Thursday in company with A. H. Bell, resident engineer. These road officials are making an inspection tour of the maintenance of State roads in this section of Virginia.

Suffolk.—"Mystery Joe," the silent man who has been in Nansemond County jail for some months, was sent to Williamsburg to the State hospital yesterday. A commission of lunacy was held over Joe, and the unfortunate man was sent to the hospital. Scores of letters have been received here from persons whose loved ones were missing, wives who wish to ascertain the whereabouts of their husbands, sisters looking for brothers, and fathers and mothers seeking children. Nothing has been received to shed any light on Joe or his people, and it is believed he will remain a mystery.

Richmond.—The yield per acre of Virginia wheat is the smallest since 1903, according to the August report of the United States bureau of markets and crop estimates. The average yield per acre as ten bushels, compared with 12.5 bushels last year, and 12.8 bushels the ten year average. In 1903 the yield was 8.4 bushels. Wheat came through the winter in excellent shape, the April 1 condition being 22 points above the ten year average, but from this time to harvest there was a rapid decline. The poor yield is attributed to the spring freezes, rust, Hessian fly and unfavorable weatehr during May and just as the crop was ripening.

Winchester.—R. Gray Williams, president of the Handley fund trustees, has cabled Mrs. Marguerite E. Harrison an invitation to tell her story of experiences in a Russian prison on the Handley lecture platform here upon her return to the United States. Lectures by celebrities of international repute constitute part of the Handley educational system here. Mrs. Harrison made her first public speech in America here at the invitation of the Handley foundation, speaking on her experiences in Germany immediately after the war and illustrating her talks with interesting Germany posters. She invited the audience to ask questions and kept up a running fire of queries and answers in a delightfully informal way.

GREED BALKS AID PLANS

Unscrupulous Interests Aim To Turn Charity To Advantage.

OPPOSE RECOGNITION

United States Relief Made—To Be Administered Separately—Hoover Prepares Plans for Work.

Paris, Aug. 13.—The laudable charity which is seeking to bring succor to famished Russia is likely to cover a multitude of poltical and economic sins unless Herbert Hoover and other disinterested organizers of relief keep tehir eyes wide open.

Inquiry among the delegation accredited to the Supreme Council's conclave reveals the fact that greedy governments and unscrupulous commercial interests are already trying to turn to their own advantage. Mr. Hoover's plan to avert starvation among millions of Muscovites.

The Entente governments decision to create an international commission charged with a thorough investigation of the Russian famine is viewed in conference circles as a political quite as much as a humanitarian move.

Great Britain, it is quite evident, sees in such a commission the opportunity to prevent direct dealings between the Russian people and the Americans and French relief representatives which might impair the trade.

Washington, Aug. 13.—American relief work among the famine sufferers in Russia will be administered separately from any international undertaking, it was announced after the Cabinet meeting today. Our contributions will not be put into any general pot which might be expended in the famine districts with heavy overhead expenses.

Although Secretary Hoover is acting in the relief work as head of the American Relief Administration, which is independent of the Government, the subject of American aid to Russia was discussed by the President and his advisers, and Mr. Harding addressed a letter to Mr. Hoover setting forth his views on the subject. The letter was not made public.

Mr. Hoover has insisted that every step in Russia will be taken under the direct supervision of the relief administration, although he made clear his willingness to discuss co-operation and co-ordination of the work with other agencies at the Geneva meetin gon August 15. His view is that the private charity carries with it an obligation for distribution and administration which cannot be delegated and that the responsibility of the administration in famine regions cannot be carried on efficiently by mixed boards.

It became known here today that some time before his release from prison by the Soviets, Dr. Weston B. Estes, now safe in Reval, wrote a letter from his cell in a Moscow prison in which he declared that he would rather rot in prison than

BIG BALL GAME

Dreadnaughts To Cross Bats With Triple A's Tomorrow

Well the baseball fans of this city are going to get what they have been asking for the whole season. Namely, action instead of words. The final arrangements have been made between the Dreadnaughts and the Aleaxndria Athletic Association, better known as the Triple A's, for a series of three games. The first game will take place Sunday, August 14, on Baggett's field at 3 p. m. weather permitting.

This should prove to be some ball game as both teams have a great record. The A's claim 16 wins out of 20 starts while the D's have been returned a winner in 31 out of 34 starts.

To assure the fans of a good clean article of ball two umpires from Washingto, who are members of the Amateur Association of umpires, will work these games. Jaeske will take the bases with Long, calling them back of the dish. Please bear in mind that the expenses are unusually heavy for these contests, and the price of admission will be 50 cents for the grandstand, and 35 cents for general admission.

The D's will present their usual lineup with either Frye or Alexander pitching. A good seat will be hard to find if you make it too late as all the advance dope is to prepare for the largest crowd who ever witnessed a ball game in this city.

Remember the time and place, Baggett's field, Sunday, at 3 o'clock.

The Tiger Jrs., wil play the fast Yankee A. C., on the Alexandria High School at 11:30 Sunday, in the first of a three game series. These games will settle the Jr., Championship of Alexandria. Captain Kidwell will put the following line up on the field: D. Hewitt, C. R. Kidwell, T. T. Hamilton, first base, W. Cator, second base; C. Cator, ss.; B. Giles, cf.; B. Plaskett, lf. The Jr's have won 22 straight games, among those they have defeated is the strong Trinagle Sport Club.

New York, Aug. 13.—Negotiations for the consolidation of furniture manufacturing companies comprising 60 per cent of all interests into a single corporation, capitalized at $25,000,000 have been under way for several months, it was learned today.

The comoined output of the furniture manufacturing concerns in the merger is about 40 per cent of the total production of the United States. Plants are located all over the country.

Hungary Takes Action for Peace With U. S.

Budapest Aug. 13.—Unreserved acceptance of the terms of the peace resolution passed by the United States Congress early in June has been asked of the Hungarian National Assembly by M. Banffy, Naister of Foreign Affairs.

In submitting the American peace resolution, the Foreign Minister asked the National Assembly to authorize the Hungarian Government to open negotiations looking to a separate peace betwen this country and the United States.

One Honest Man Found In Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Alonzo Wilcox, 70, of Chapin, Ontario, had an unusual experience in Chicago today. Mr. Wilcox had $350 in Canadian currency, and wanted to get it changed into United States currency. A young man on the train voluntered to solve the problem for him. Wilcox turned the Canadian currency over to the stranger.

Alonzo waited. Neither the stranger nor the money appeared. The old man told his troubles to Station Policeman Jerry Delaney. The latter from long years of experience, told him he might as well give up hope of ever seeing the money again. But just then the stranger appeared with the American equivalent of $350 in Canadian money.

Property Transfers.

Deeds of conveyances for the following pieces of property today were placed on record in the office of the clerk of the court: Geo. W. Rogers to James W. Warren house and lot 304 South Fairfax street; Carl Budwesky and wife to George E. Violett house and lot 531 South Fairfax street; Robinson Moncure, trustee, to Hugo Herfurth, Jr., house and lot 724 North Columbus street.

Raid Chicken House.

Chicken thieves got busy last night and made a raid on the hennery of Thomas Pullman, 800 South Washington street, and got away with about a dozen leghorn chickens. A report of the robbery has been made to the police.

Latest In Forgeries Nets 3 Youths $20,000.

New York, Aug. 13.—The latest thing in forgeries was revealed today by the police. They charged that three youths, said to have made $20,000 had operated a printing establishment on th East Side, in order that they might obtain customers' checks to serve as models for later forgeries.

Another method of collecting models attributed to the prisoners by the police was to enter a store, tell the proprietor they wished to send a $5 check out of town, pay that sum in exchange for the firm's check and later reproduce check and signature.

The trio, alleged to have confessed, were Samuel Mehl and Harvey H. and William V. April.

Another Clash Over Silesia Now Expected.

Paris, Aug. 13.—The creation of an autonomous state to include the disputed industrial region in Upper Silesia under the administration of an international control commission will be the League of Nations solution for the plebiscite problem.

By their action in turning the problem over to the League of Nations for solution France and Great Britain have averted the danger of an immediate runture in their relations, as a deadlock had been reached and neither side wished to make concessions that would impair its dignity.

John Marshall Gaines, of 114 North Alfred street, who is a student at George Washington University Medical School, has been called to the Lying In Hospital at New York City.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS ATTENDANCE CAMPAIGN

Standing of the Schools.

	Attendance	P.C.
Second Baptist	180	129
St. Paul's	115	116
M. E., South	333	98
First Baptist	403	98
Trinity M. E.	97	88
Second Presbyterian	107	86

Another slump in the Sunday school attendance of Alexandria was noted last Sunday, 1,284 reporting instead of the 1,326 registered the previous Sunday. There is a great deal of gratification, however, in the fact that this year's attendance is still ahead of last year's, every school but two making substantial gains. The Second Baptist attendance last year was 209 against 180 for the same Sunday this year. The Second Presbyterian attendance last year was 146 but only 107 last Sunday.

The Sunday school superintendents will meet at the Y. M. C. A., office at the Westminister building Tuesday evening, August 16, at 7:30 o'clock to discuss the picnic Labor Day, in which all schools will participate. Appointment of committees will take place at once and the necessary machinery put in motion to give the Sunday school youngsters of Alexandria the greatest outing they have ever known.

Lad Got Reprieve Report By Telegrapher's Error.

Union, Mo., Aug. 13.—Charles Jacoy, 18 veteran of the Meuse-Argonne offensive, was hanged today for the murder of Benjamin Schobe, who was killed November 20. John Carroll, of Fairchilds, Pa., also was convicted in the slaying, but was granted a 30 stay of execution.

While kneeling in prayer in his cell last night, Jacoy was told a telegram had arrived from Lieutenant Governor Hyde granting him a 30 day reprieve. His joy was short lived, however, for a few minutes later, when the original message arrived at the prison, it was disclosed that a telegrapher had made a mistake in transmitting the message over the telephone.

The telegram was from the Governor confirming his granting of a 30 day reprieve. His joy was short Jacoy was hanged in the jailyard, when the trap was sprung at 9:35 o'clock. He was pronounced dead a few minutes later.

Ready for Regatta.

O. D. Club Carnival To Start at 3 P. M., Today

Everything is in readiness for the Old Dominion Boat Club regatta which will start promptly at 3 o'clock and probably end about 6 o'clock.

Long before the hour set for starting the participating oarsmen were on hand giving a final tryout of their speed for the contest. Many persons assembled on the river front to witness the water carnival, and it is expected that the affair will be largely patronized. Indications point to one of the most successful regattas ever staged by the local club.

YORK'S FRIENDS WORK TO SAVE HIS FARM

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 13.—A strong effort is being made to raise $12,500 to save Sergt. Alvin York's fine farm from foreclosure. Aroused by revelation that the hero of the world war was about to lose his farm on Wolf river, near Pall Mall, an active campaign is being waged to raise the needed sum.

The Rotary Clubs of Nashville, Knoxville and Chattanooga are hard at work getting up the money by popular subscription and three newspapers have opened York funds. It was the Nashville Rotary Club which originally bought the farm for York, paid $11,000 on it, and is still holding title to it. The board of directors of the club today indorsed the new drive and will get out actively after funds for it Saturday.

The Knoxville Board of Commerce is conducting a Statewide campaign for dollar checks for the sergeant; T. H. Johnston, former president of the National Textile Manufacturers' Association, is the leading spirit in the movement.

Friends of the sergeant at Pall Mall nevertheless are much incensed over the treatment they claim he received. The most violent of these is the spiritual adviser of the hero, Parson Pile by name. According to the preacher, York has been "swindled" by the crowd he has gone with and brought to his present plight by his own lack of foresight.

"If he had done as I advised him," said the parson, "he would have money now to buy his farm 10 times over. But he was hoodwinked by that crowd and now is about to lose the farm."

The parson had advised the sergeant to accept some of the theatrical and magazine offers he received, but had his advice disregarded, for York refused to "commercialize an act of Providence."

The sergeant still affirms his trust that Providence will provide for him, has accepted, with thanks, all contributions to donors expressing gratitude for their aid. He now hopes to have enough cash by November 18 to pay his mortgage installment.

BOOST TRIP A SUCCESS

Merchants Given a Cordial Reception At All Places They Visited.

TREAT KIDDIES

Trip Extended and Visit Made To Manassas—List of Participating Merchants Given.

Meeting with the glad hand and a cordial reception at almost every stop along the road, 60 of the city's best known business men and merchants, in a cavalcade of about 22 automobiles, returned late last evening from the first of a series of Boosters' Trips that are being planned under the auspices of the Advertising Club of Alexandria and the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce and plans will be inaugurated in the near future for a bigger and better trip.

The string of automobiles, bearing the jubilant spirited business men and a riot of signs advertising the city as the best place in which to shop on Dollar Day, next Wednesday and in fact every day, left here at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, the first stop on the itinerary being Del Ray. The band, which headed the procession, gave a selection at Del Ray, advertising matter was handed around and ice cream cones were given to the tots who crowded around the machines.

The next stop was Rosslyn and the Boosters were well received in that village. Falls Church furnished the only complaint against the trip when the sheriff boarded one of the cars in the line and complained against the distributing of the advertising matter carried on the trip.

A royal welcome was extended the local men when they arrived in Fairfax Court House and a chicken dinner "fit for the gods," as some of the Alexandrians described it, was served them at the Fairfax Tavern while in the county seat, a proposition was advanced to the local men that will probably be taken up and acted upon at the next meeting of the club.

The original route was extended, after leaving Fairfax to include Manassas and here they were also given a good welcome. Members of the local crowd called upon the mayor of Manassas and were extended the glad hand by that official. They then went to the Prince William fair grounds and there mingled with several hundred Prince William county farmers who were holding a picnic there.

The following firms were represented in the trip: Kaufmann and Blumenfeld; Howell, the Hatter; Abe L. Cohen, M. Loeb, S. F. Dyson and Bro.; Levinson Clothing Co.; Downham and Ridgely; Julius Wolf; Swan Brothers; D. Bendheim Sons, Inc.; Alex Kaufmann; A. Katz; E. London; C. W. and R. L. Myers, Jr.; J. M. A number of members of Alexandria Lodge No. 758, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will on Tuesday attend the Maryland state convention of Elks which will be held in Hagerstown, Md. As will be seen by an announcement elsewhere in this paper. Those who propose to go should apply at once to the George W. Bontz, Jr., secretary of the local lodge.

Stopped At Wrong Time.

Stock Raid Made When Auto Man Stops to Turn Lights On Flivver

William Jones, colored, of Fairfax county, while driving into Alexandria last night, stopped his flivver to turn on his auto light in order to comply with the law. The stopping of the machine attracted Sergeant Campbell and Policeman Rawlett who upon making an investigation, discovered a small wooden keg containing five gallons of a fluid supposed to be corn liquor. They also recovered three bottles. Jones was arraigned in the police court today and held for the action of the grand jury Later he furnished a bond in the sum of $500 and was released.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Washington, Aug. 13.—Congressional and official circles were somewhat stirred up here today when it became known for the first time that Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, one-time candidate for Presidential honors, deliberately snubbed President Harding a few weeks after the President entered the White House, by refusing an invitation to dinner extended to him.

This snub, the Gazette correspondent learns, is responsible for President Harding's failure to take the California Senator into his confidence on the subject of German peace treaty negotiations, although the Executive has conferred with nearly every other Republican member of the Foreign Relations Committee. Johnson, as the result, is sore and has made many charges on the floor of the Senate about the failure of the President and State Department to keep the members of the Fore Relations Committee informed on the progress of the peace negotiations with Germany.

Alien Property Seized $418,727,931.

Col. Thomas W. Miller Alien Property Custodian, has in his possession at the present time property belonging to Germans and Austrians seized after the declaration of war amounting to $418,727,931.30.

"This amount, of course," said Col. Miller to the Gazette correspondent today, "is necessarily an estimate, for the reason that the determination of enemy character was made principally on a decision of residence and until a claim is filed for the return of the property it is absolutely impossible to determine the nationality of the enemy in whose name the property is held."

While $9,000,000 worth of property has been returned to the Austrians, not a single penny has been given back to Germans and there does not seem to be any likelihood that any property belonging to the former Kaiser's subjects held by the United States will be returned until after the signing of the declaration of peace and until Germany has satisfied some of the claims against her lodged by American citizens.

Ambassador to Japan

Charles B. Warren, of Detroit, Mich., recently named by President Harding as U. S. Ambassador to Japan, is in Washington receiving his final instructions from the President and Secretary of State Hughes. Mr. Warren is closing up his private affairs in this country so as to be able to sail for Japan not later than September 1. He has just returned from Europe, where he visited England and the Scandanavian countries in order to get first-hand information about conditions in those countries.

There was nothing given out at the White House today to indicate whether or not Fresident Harding, when he was informed of the marriage of his father, Dr. George T. Harding, to Miss Alice Severns, a clerk in his office, had wired congratulations to the couple. That the President was not aware of the intentions of his father was evident from the remarks made at the White House today and Dr. Harding's marriage, it is known, was a complete surprise to the Chief Executive and his immediate household.

While Dr. Harding is 76 years of age, those who saw him in Washington at the time of his son's inauguration remarked that he was a mighty well preserved man for his years. But the doctor's "elopement" caused a good deal of comment in Washington, nevertheless.

Report Mellon May Resign

There have been reports circulated in Washington within the last few days that Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, will shortly resign from the Cabinet. While there is no confirmation of such rumors, the fact that the President and Congress refused to endorse the recommendations of the Secretary of the Treasury regarding the revision of our tax laws lends color to such reports. Mellon, regarded as the second richest man in the country if not in the world, does not seem to be worrying about the matter. And why should he?

TODAY'S THOUGHT There are two points in the adventure of the diver; one, when a beggar he prepares to plunge; one, when a prince he rises with his pearl.
Browning.

MIGRATORY MOVEMENTS

It is prophesied by apparently competent authority, that within the next twenty years two migratory movements will take place in the United States that will revolutionize the status of the towns and smaller cities. One of these movements will owe its origin to the general migration of business men, professional men, salaried people and wage-earners, with their families, from the larger centers of population to towns and cities of from 5000 to 25,000 inhabitants, located within a radius of fifty miles from their shops and offices.

The other movement will be a migration of industry, including factories and workmen, from the larger cities to the smaller cities and towns. It is claimed that thereby the saving in overhead, taxes, interest on costly land investment, or rentals, will more than balance the urban advantages of large population.

It is stated that a city, like a business, can grow to such size that the well-known law of diminishing returns becomes operative to a point where profits cease. There is no doubt that the problems of transportation, housing, health, fire and police protection grow to such complexity that their solution is a matter approaching impossibility.

The automobile has shrunken distance between work-place and home by at least a hundred per cent. The motion picture has afforded the small town the recreation and amusement formerly denied it, at prices that are within reach of the smallest income. The phonograph places in every home the world's best music. The daily and weekly papers and the hundreds of magazines give the people many of the advantages of a college education. So that the chief lures and fascinations of a large city have in a measure gone over to the towns and smaller centers of population.

Alexandria is bound to benefit by this trend of events. She not only possesses every physical attraction that her big neighbor to the north can boast, but in addition, she has advantages such as are vouchsafed to but few other cities. Her deep river, her geographical situation as gateway to the south, her proximity to one of the fairest and most fertile valleys in the world, her nearness to the large cities of the Atlantic coast, her access to inexhaustible coal fields—all these point to a future that is rich in possibilities We believe, too, that the realization of these possibilities is not at all remote. We believe that all things point to an early revival of conditions that will equal or surpass those that gave such an impetus to her growth during the war. With this difference, however, that the new growth will be steady, legitimate and permanent. It will be built on foundations so solid that there can be no regress.

The signs are already beginning to be visible and we are unshakable in our belief that they are the true prognostics of that Greater Alexandria for which we have all worked, and to which we have all looked forward as the city of our dreams and hopes.

nal taxes about $560,000,000, making the expected total yield from internal revenues in this fiscal year approximately $3,000,000,000, instead of the $4,000,000,000 that Secretary Mellon estimated as necessary.

The Republicans plan to raise the limit of the short dated debt from $7,000,000,000 to $7,500,000,000 The increase of $500,000,000 will enable Mr. Mellon to borrow to meet the current needs of the Government, if revenues run short of expenditures

The Republican conference having been called to act on the bill next Monday, the Republican members of the committee are turning deaf ears to protests being made by soft-drink people, who are up in arms. The tax was taken off sales at the soda fountain, as promised, but one was placed on the manufacturers, and it is calculated to yield considerably more—may be twice as much—as the old tax.

Fabrics That Blossomed for Midsummer Frocks

SILVER-GRAY drifts of voile—soft clouds of dawn-tinted mull—a flutter of cool, clear-toned organdy—the loveliest frocks ever dreamed of are held captive in their billowy lengths, awaiting the magic touch of your needle.

Will you select the jade organdy or the apricot linen—the scarlet voile or the flamingo? It is merely a matter of preference, because you can't resist the fabrics and you don't have to. Our midsummer prices are setting a new standard of moderation. But even more important, a marvelous new invention bids you to choose the fabrics you most desire and it will grant you wonderful economies:

The DELTOR

A picture guide with every new Butterick Pattern that saves you 50c to $10 on every frock you make

First, you buy from ¼ to 1⅜ yards less material than you ever used before because of a wonderfully simple cutting guide worked out in your size, for your pattern, and in every suitable width of fabric. You follow it simply—surely—swiftly—and you have saved 50c to $10 in materials on every frock you make.

Then, according to the Deltor you put your garment together. Your needle follows its simple pictures as it flies in and out; with never a second of hesitation, you attain the perfect fit and drape that you thought could only be the work of a professional modiste of Fifth Avenue or Paris.

And last, the Deltor's finishing touches accomplish a wonderful thing for you. How often have you hoped to make a "creation" instead of just a dress? With Deltor you do just that. It reveals those intimate little touches of finish and adornment of a Parisian modiste—that make your frock stand out in any gathering.

Insurance of the Right Kind is—

Money Invested---Not Money Spent

Hundreds of persons, right here in Alexandria have proved the truth of this statement in the past few years. They were, perhaps skeptical at first. They looked on insurance as MONEY SPENT and only consented to the writing of a policy after a long argument.

But these same people, or at least, more than fifty per cent. of them, have come to the realization that their insurance policies are the best kinds of investments and that they are surer of immediate returns in case of any kind of trouble than if their money has been put in any kinds of stocks or bonds.

A few dollars invested today in the right kind of insurance mean protection for your home and household goods, your automobile—and our policies provide against the theft or burning of your car—liability incurred should you accidentally strike a pedestrian—liability incurred in a smash-up with another car—in fact they are an absolute guarantee against any kind of trouble while you are driving.

Don't you think that your best plan is to assure yourself of protection today? If so, call to see us and we will promise to take very little of your time and for a few dollars put you in a position of positive safety.

ENEMY APPEARS AGAIN

Fredericksburg Rug. 11, 1813

We learn that on Friday last, a British frigate, brig and tender, anchored in the Rappahannock, a little above North Point. They were fried on by our Guard and returned. They then proceeded to sound the depth of water in Butler's Hole. On Saturday morning, two of the barges took possession of a schooner nearly opposite to Pop Castle, the seat of Martin Sherwin, Esq. The captured schooner is supposed to have arms on board, intended for the militia of Accomack and Northampton Counties. Captain Jones, who had charge of the military articles, and two young ladies, passengers, are also believed to have been on board at the time of her capture.

NEWS FROM PARIS

Paris, May 22, 1813 .

The Emperor Napoleon has offered the assembling of a congress at Prague for a general peace. On the part of France will be the French plenipotentiaries, those of the United States of America, of Denmark, and of the King of Spain; and on the other side those of England, Russia, Prussia, the Spanish insurgents, and the belligerent allies. In this congress will be offered the basis of a lasting peace—but it is doubted whether England will be willing to submit her unjust and egotistical principles to the censure and opinion of the universe. It will not be in her power, so little of that has she, to reclaim in the first place the privileges adhering to her sovereignty, and which are consecrated by the articles of the treaty of Utrecht on maritime navigation.

An American Doughboy in France

By ELLIOTT F. HOFFMAN

(Historian of Alexandria Post, No. 24, American Legion.)

(For the Alexandria Gazette.)

Advance to the Argonne

The terrific strain of sixteen days in the front line at St. Mihiel left us with nerves on edge, and manifestations of this condition were noticed on every hand. "Scraps" among the boys of the division were of frequent occurrence and an epidemic of profanity broke out, hence very few men in our company were eligible for membership in the "Amalgamated Association of Non-Cussers." Having gotten into the habit of fighting it was easy to find provocation to attack each other. All difficulties were settled by might— the gentle art of diplomacy was never used by the doughboy. One fellow who had the bad habit of getting at the head of the mess line out of his turn was tapped on the head by a brother soldier with a two-pound can of corned beef, which resulted in his being borne off to an ambulance. In addition to the physical discomfort such an attack would naturally bring, the poor fellow had to stand a "bawling out" from the stretcher bearers, who were inconvenienced to the extent of losing their places in the mess line, while carrying the "patient" off, thereby losing a chance of getting "seconds" on the delicious "slum gullion" stew— the piece de resistance that day. Even stretcher bearers had "nerves," you see. And, as a last straw, Rainbow, our laughing mule, who had braved the shot and shell to bring us food and water at St. Mihiel in the wee small hours of th morning, and who had seemed, hereto fore, to appreciate the affection we showered upon him, developed the disconcerting habit of "saluting with h left foot." Rainbow, too, had "nerves."

The rest area is the place to see what a disintegrating force war is.

Once during our stay in the rear the pay call was sounded, and believe me, friend reader, there was a wild shout and a mad rush to head that line! We felt very rich when we received a fist full of French francs —bits of blue paper, each about the size of a cigar coupon—but when upon examination and a little calculation of the value (at that time the franc was worth about seventeen and a half cents), we found that the bulk was due to the small denominations of our "coupons,"ranging from one-half to ten francs and the whole amount totaled the princely sum of $10.40—our pay for one month's service after all deductions were made. There was no incentive to save any of this or to augment it by resorting to that fascinating little game called "seven come eleven," so popular in times of financial stress, for th francs were only legal tender in th Department (State) in which they were issued. Since we were to on in a few days, we had to rid ourselves of our fortune toute de suite.

We had four days' rest here, after which we received orders to roll packs and be prepared to move at nightfall. We were booked to have a part in the great drama of the Argonne. The First Division was battling its way through the Hindenburg line in the Argonne forest near Montfaucon and we were to relieve them. A wind and rain storm arose as we set out—nature furnishes a fitting background sometimes for much tragic dramas. The storm was at its height when, after an all-night march, we reached Dead Man's Hill just before dawn. This place, with its gruesome name, had been the scene of tremendous French losses during four days' fighting there in the early part of the war.

We found our "pep" tents too wet fourteen miles a day and still keep pitch them for the night, so we wrapped ourselves in our wet blankets and with our steel helmets as protection from the pelting rain, slept there on the ground.

At breakfast time we were without food, as our rolling kitchen did not arrive until late in the afternoon, giving us only one meal that day. Immediately following sumptuous (?) repast, we boarded trucks and were conveyed to a small village some twenty miles behind the lines. It was about 3 a. m. when we reached this place and we disposed ourselves on the ground or around camp fires which we made in the village streets, to rest as best we might. At daybreak we started out to scout up a meal from some devoted, generous (?) Frenchman who might have something to sell. We came upon a French company of infantry who were resting there and found them well supplied with bread and willing to part with a few slices without demanding a "first mortgage" on the United States Treasury, which the French seemed to think we owned. These scanty rations tided us over until our company kitchen came up late in the afternoon. Another day with only one meal! But as it was an extraordinarily good one—"seconds" were plentiful—we long remembered it, for the meals that followed were indeed wretched. Only a half starved man could have eaten the food that was served to these troops who were expected to walk ten, twelve and founteen miles a day and still keep in condition to battle with the best division the Germans could assemble. The morale, at this time, was not of a very high degree. One poor fellow, who had fought at Lorraine, Chateau Thierry and St. Mihiel, seemed to give way under the strain and, while lying on the ground, dirty, tired and hungry, made an effort to kill himself. He was saved from doing so by his "buddy," who wrested the pistol from him as he was about to fire. This poor fellow was one of eighteen men who were killed two days later while en route to the trenches, an account of which will be given in the next issue of the Gazette.

If Women Only Knew

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that

Bachache pains often come from weak kidneys.

'Twould save much needless woe.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys. Ask your neighbor!

Read what an Alexandria citizen says:

Mrs. F. M. Entwisle, 1007 Gibbon St., says: "The pains in my back were something awful and no matter how I turned I couldn't get rid of them. There was a sore and lame feeling and a heavy, bearing-down ache in my back all the time. My head felt as though somebody were pounding it and I became very nervous. I had dizzy spells, too. The wa, my kidneys acted bothered me a lot and caused me no little pain. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief and by the time I had finished the second box all my kidney trouble had left me; I was entirely cured."

CARELESS TOURISTS START DESTRUCTIVE FOREST FIRES

Because of the war ,Germany lost about 21,547,520 acres of land exclusive of plebiscites. This was undoubtedly a serious national misfortune to Germany. The United States, during the period 1916-1920, inclusive, burned up 56,488,307 acres of our forested area—over 2 1-2 times as much as Germany's entire loss—an area greater than New York and Pennsylvania combined, or of Minnesota, Kansas, Idaho, or Utah.

While it is impossible to trace the origin of all forest fires, the records of the Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture show that a large number originated through the carelessness of happy-go-lucky tourists. The Forest Service is anxious to encourage the use of the National Forests as recreation grounds. It co-operates with plans for building fine roads through the forests, and establishes numerous free camping grounds, where shelter, water and firewood may be obtained. Many of these camps are located on main automobile highways and are easily reached. Some States provide tourist guide maps to the forests and camp sites. About 5,000,000 people, it is estimated, use the forests each year during the vacation season. At Eagle Camp Ground on the Columbia River Highway in the Oregon National Forest, 132,000 tourists registered last year.

Some of the campers, however, do not seem to appreciate the pleasures and privileges afforded to the touring public. They disfigure the scenery with rubbish and filth, they disregard game laws and pollute streams, but their worst and most frequent recurring offense, according to forest officers, is the starting of destructive forest fires by carelessness either with camp fires or with smoking.

A lighted cigarette thrown into dry leaves or needles, may start a fire that will spread for miles. A camp fire not fully extinguished may be the means of destroying valuable timber which has taken hundreds of years to reach maturity. The reports of forest rangers are filled with dramatic accounts of the work involved in controlling such fires, and also in detecting and bringing the culprits before a judge after following the very slight clues obtainable in a deserted camp site. Sometimes an old bottle or a pocket handkerchief will reveal the original possessor who did not put out his fire. Sometimes a particular make of automobile tire can be traced for miles and the careless camper brought to justice.

No fines, however, on the part of the local magistrate, will restore the burned area, While forest rangers are vigilant and alert to catch carelessness and prevent incipient fires, the real need, the foresters say, is for the development of more conscience on the part of the public which uses the National Forests. It is greatly desired by the Forest Service that all the 147 National Forests, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from Gulf to Border, be used and enjoyed to the fullest extent by as many people as possible. This involves universal adoption of the slogan, "Be sure your fire is out!"

Mrs. WILLIMAN TESTIFIES

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Be the Best Medicine for Girls and Women

Hamilton, Ohio.—"I had such awful pains in my back I could hardly stand on my feet and I was never without a headache. If I walked up town I thought I would drop and many a time I felt so bad I had to go to bed and I was not able to do much of my housework. I would have hemorrhages every two weeks and dragging down pains. I had been feeling badly for three years and had two of the best doctors in the city, but I kept getting worse and only weighed 125 pounds. I saw your advertisement and I took eight boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets, four bottles Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and your Liver Pills and noticed an improvement right away. Now I weigh 188 pounds and feel fine. Everybody tells me how well I look and asks me what I took and I always say, 'Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the best medicine in the world for any sickness to which girls and women are subject.' I will always have a good word for your medicine and you may use my name whenever you wish."—Mrs. JOSEPH WILLIMAN, 722 South 9th Street, Hamilton, Ohio.

France, dubtless, will do her best to use the commission as a means of extracting from the Soviet Government, by indirect and nonofficial intercourse, promises to pay the billions owed to French investors by the lod imperial regime. Italy favors the idea of the commission because it may help her to get better terms in the trade agreement she is now negotiating with Moscow.

Incidentally European politicians and economists frankly suspect America of being actuated by the desire to find Russian markets for her surplus productions rather than by purely philanthropic motives. Europe wants to stop the famine in Russia, of course, if only because the epidemics it is bound to breed are sure to sweep westward unless it is speedily overcome inside the Russian frontiers.

Camp Humphreys Notes

The following motion picture attractions will be seen at the Liberty theater during the week ending August 20th:

Monday, August 15.—All star caste in "Pagan Love"; Pathe News and Rolin comedy.

Tuesday, August 16.—Shirley Mason in "The Lamplighter," Fox News, comedy "The General."

Wednesday, August 17.—May Allison in "Extravagance," Pathe News.

Thursday, August 18.—Pauline Frederick in "Roads of Destiny," "It All Depends," Bray.

Friday, August 19.—Wallace Reid in "Always Audacious," Mutt and Jeff, Fire, comedy.

Saturday, August 20.—Harry Carey in "Hearts Up"; comedy "Puppy Love."

Sunday, August 14, the Camp Bible School will meet at the Camp Chapel at 10 a. m. Divine worship will be conducted by Chaplain Perry O. Wilcox at 11 a. m. at the Camp Chapel. Roman Catholic mass will be held in the camp gymnasium at 11 a. m.

C. R. Easeley, former field director of the American Red Cross at this camp, who was recently ordered to proceed to Port Au Prince, Haiti for duty with the United States marines has had his orders changed and left here August 9 for St. Louis where he will report to the headquarters of the Southeastern division of the Red Cross whence he expects to proceed to Eagle Pass, Texas, where he will make his headquarters, his territory including Eagle Pass, Del Rio and Fort Clark. H. J. Davis and family will occupy the Red Cross House here and act as Red Cross representative for several military posts in this vicinity.

Captain R. G. Moses reported at this post August 9 from Boston, Mass. He will be on duty as instructor in the engineer school.

Improvements in the camp are steadily progressing. About 30 new sets of quarters for officers are under construction, as well as permanent sidewalks of concrete. New roads are being built to conform to the plan for the permanent post. A three days "clean-up" August 9, 10 and 11 when every available man on the post was employed in removing the debris and grading has given the construction a well groomed appearance. There will be a demand for the new quarters by officers with families, as fast as they can be completed.

A number of soldiers here made application to be discharged following recent legislation by Congress, and have been separated from the service. It is understood that conditions outside the army have been found unfavorable to securing employment and that many of these men will regret the step they have taken. Not a few applications were withdrawn when the men realized just what they would have to face in civil life.

A three days clean-up August 9, 10 and 11 when every available man on the post was employed in removing debris has given the camp a better groomed appearance.

Heir of Duke Millions Under Auto Fatality Bond.

New York, Aug. 13.—Angier B. Duke, son and heir of Benjamin B. Duke, founder of the American Tobacco Company, was under $2,000 bond as a result of his connection with a fatal automobile accident three days before that fact became generally known today. When Duke's hearing with that of other defendants was continued today because Magistrate W. Bruce Cobb was not satisfied with evidence which was contradictory in some degree, the identity of Duke as driver of the motor-car which is charged with responsibility for the accident was discovered. His bail was continued for further hearing next Tuesday.

Owen Kivlon, 54, was so crushed that he died when a delivery automobile of the Distinctive Production Company, No. 366 Madison avenue, pinned him against a pillar of the el evated extension of the subway in Broadway near 231st Street last Tuesday morning. Angier B. Duke, driving a big automobile through 231st street, had turned to go south in Broadway and his car struck the rear mudguard of the delivery automobile. The latter was shoved to one side and caught Kivlon, who was standing beside the pillar.

Joseph Palmer, a negro, driver of the delivery machine, and Henry Haubert, president of the Distinctive Production Company, were held with Duke in $2,000. bail each. Assistant District Attorney George A. Deluca today expressed the opinion that the death of Kivlon was due to an almost unavoidable accident, but Magistrate Cobb, after examining the witnesses, decided to continue the hearing next week, saying the testimony seemed to be conflicting.

Crude Oil from Many Fields Helps to Make "Standard" the Best Gasoline

PETROLEUM varies greatly according to its source. Some crude oil is best for one purpose while other grades are superior for different products. In many years of experimental work we have discovered that our widely varying sources of supply—covering almost every developed field—are of great value in contributing to the ideal balance in gasoline.

You cannot get out of the motor anything more than you put into it—via the carburetor. No amount of skill in operation will make a one-sided gasoline act like a balanced fuel.

A one-sided gasoline may be quick-starting, or be efficient in some other one respect, but it is not capable of delivering the all-round efficiency of a well-balanced gasoline. A gasoline of proper balance can be depended upon not only for quick-starting but for smooth-running, maximum mileage, and a clean motor as well.

It is the easiest thing in the world to test this improved gasoline yourself. Wait until your tank is nearly empty and then try out "STANDARD" MOTOR GASOLINE on hills with which you are familiar.

You can buy it wherever you motor.
